WASHINGTON WAIFS.

GOOD OLD TIMES, AND PROTESTS AGAINST BURIAL IN NEW YORK.

Washingtonians Want Cheap Fare to New York--Not a Very Brilliant Show--Something About Seats--National News and Timely Topics.

OUR MIDSUMMER CLEARANCE SALE STILL CONTINUES. ALL SUMMER GOODS MUST BE SOLD. THIS IS NOT TALK, BUT A CALL WILL CONVINCE YOU THAT WE MEAN WHAT WE SAY.

WASHINGTON, July 31.--"I think money was more free while Gen. Grant was in the White House," said an old policeman, "than at any time for the previous twenty years or since. Whenever Gen. Grant gave a levee or New Year's day reception a five dollar gold piece was handed every police officer who had done any duty about the White House, either inside or out. When he gave his last reception he gave the officers $10 each. There have been no such times about there since."

Efforts are being made to secure a reduction in the railroad fare between here and New York in the shape of excursion tickets at a reduced rate to attend the Grant funeral, but so far the railroad companies have come down any. A reduction will, however, be made in the case of organizations, but even then the fare is not as low as is desired.

So far one militia company and three parts of the Grand Army of the Republic of this city have announced that they will attend the funeral in a body. Others will probably join them. A detachment of men from the 69th regiment will be sent to New York. They will be accompanied by the United States Marine band.

It was stated in a telegram from New York recently that President Cleveland had "been asked by Mrs. Grant to select the honorary pall bearers for the funeral." No such request has been received by the president. As understood here, this is a part of Gen. Hancock's plan, in connection with the management of the funeral. Gen. Hancock will, of course, consult the wishes of the family in the matter.

A meeting of citizens and residents was held here, where a protest was made against the selection of Riverside park as the burial place of Gen. Grant, an urging that the burial take place at the Soldiers' home in this city. The resolutions lacked dignity and were filled with sarcasms referring to New York, which city was declared to be "the first in population and wealth if not in patriotism." Gen. Beall, Gen. S. S. Burdette and J. A. J. Crowell, neither of whom was at the meeting, were appointed a committee to present the protest to Col. Grant at Mount McGregor. Neither is it known whether either of these gentlemen will accept.

A meeting of hack owners adopted resolutions deploring the selection of Riverside park, and recommending that the proposed Soldiers' Home site be accepted. The hack owners make no secret of the fact that they had a direct interest in the matter.

Mr. Lamar's Letter. WASHINGTON, July 31.--Secretary Lamar, wishing to correct rumors that have been something offensive to him in his correspondence or intercourse with Civil Service Commissioner Eaton, has sent the latter the following letter:

"MY DEAR SIR: Yours of the 11th inst. has been received. I had observed with deep regret some of the articles to which you refer, feeling their injustice in connection with yourself. The letter of the 1st of June did not in any way reflect upon my action, or that of this department. It is just and proper that I should go further and state that your communications to me have been in entire harmony with my own views, never in any single instance lacking that kindness and good will which have characterized our official as well as personal relations.

"While I regret some of my article country as my own section, yet I do not regret that the civil service commission has imposed upon me the grateful duty of naming to some extent the individuals who in this branch of the departmental service has been manifested against the locality of my birth and therefore, I trust, my country.

"Under preceding administrations, and before the civil service commission was established, appointments were made on the basis of political power, owing to the peculiar causes, was directed as a rule to selections from the most intelligent and best population of the south. The civil service commission has opened the channels of public employment to the most intelligent masses from all sections of the country alike. But the boundless wealth and business activity of the north divert most of its battle-ary, business and legal talent from those channels, while the south, with less call for men of ability and intelligence in the walks of business life, offers to the public her best literary, business and legal talent.

"Your commissioner was shown, and will necessarily show, in the competition of applicants, a larger proportion from which to select among the states which have had their due proportion. Thus by means of the action of the commission, the great work of reform in the departmental service will be steadily and beneficially equalized and renewed.

"Hoping that we, each in our several spheres, may in the highest degree contribute to the general good, I have the honor to remain, with great respect, very truly yours,

"L. Q. C. LAMAR."

Agricultural. WASHINGTON, July 31.--Not only has the sorghum seed distributed by the agricultural department last season been reported to be a failure, but reports are being received by that department stating that but little of the seed planted during the past two or three years of any value. It is said the agricultural department accepted from a favored seed contractor seed that was three years old, and for which a sale could not be secured in the regular way. Commissioner Coleman's suggestion that hereafter the department shall attend to the legitimate duties, instead of being turned into a free seed distributing concern, is being favorably received by farmers in parts of the country. In their letters they state that but little confidence was ever placed in the value of the seed sent out by the agricultural department, most of it being stale and otherwise worthless.

THE RIDGWAY PARK MYSTERY.

No Light Thrown on Manie McLaughlin's Death by the Coroner's Inquest. PHILADELPHIA, July 31.--The coroner held his inquest into the death of Manie McLaughlin, the young girl who was found drowned in the Delaware river near Ridgway park a few days ago. The girl's mother testified that the deceased had admitted to her that she had visited "the park," accompanied by Annie Presl. This Mrs. McLaughlin thought, meant Fairmount park. Her daughter's death was a mystery to her. The girl's father said he had threatened to chastise Manie if she remained out of the house after 10 o'clock at night, and admitted that when he heard of her death he remarked: "I thought something would happen to her that he meant by this he would not say."

Myrtle Mylett, who lived near the girl's father, testified that on the evening of the drowning he saw the girl at Ridgway park sitting at a table with two men. He expressed to her his surprise at meeting her there, but had no further conversation with her. Dr. Stewart testified that the girl had come to her death by drowning. There were no external marks of drowning on the body, and the internal organs were in normal condition, with the exception of the brain, which was slightly congested. The other witnesses were unimportant. Under the coroner's instructions the jury then brought in a verdict of "found drowned," which will allow the case to be reopened should further evidence be discovered.

SALT LAKE SAUCE.

Counterfeit Captured--Polygamist and the Feds Attending to Double Duty.

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 31.--Kennedy, the counterfeiter, who escaped from the city jail, was captured at Coalville, thirty-five miles east of here. Ed Harris, the oldest tobaccoist in Salt Lake, made an assignment. Liabilities and assets both small, less than $2,000 owed in the east.

A good deal of a sensation was created by Marshals serving subpoenas for witnesses to appear before the grand jury in October against Angus Cannon and Milton Musser, the prominent Mormons serving a sentence of unlawful cohabitation. The terms will expire in October. The impression is that new indictments will be found charging with living with more than one woman between the time of former indictment and conviction. It is said to be the tactics of the prosecution those now in the penitentiary will be made to serve double terms, as it is said that none of them have abandoned their polygamist relations after indictment, thinking that conviction would wipe out scores up to the time they are released from the penitentiary.

RIEL'S TRIAL.

Nothing Startling Except That He Wanted One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

WINNIPEG, July 31.--In the Riel trial the remainder of the crown witnesses were examined and the prosecution rested. The evidence bore chiefly on the part taken by the prisoner in inciting to rebellion and leading the Riel forces and merchants of Du-Lac and in the early incidents of the rebellion. A brother of Riel's identified a number of documents in Riel's handwriting. His cousin said the prisoner told him last December he claimed indemnity of one hundred thousand dollars in compensation for the losses in the Red River rebellion and he did not get it would raise a rebellion. Riel, Ray, of Quebec, and Clarke, of Toronto, reached Regina and inquired into Riel's mental condition. They will be examined for the defense.

A Lifeline Corpses.

EDMONTON, Wis., July 31.--On Wednesday Mrs. Florence M. Zook, age 20, died and was lying while visiting at Oconto. Her body was brought here the following day, and arrangements made for the funeral services, which were taken place yesterday. Although apparently dead, the usual evidences of dissection are not present, and she has not, therefore, been buried. The body has at no time been rigid, nor are the extremities cold, and no signs of decomposition are visible. Before the body was exhumed a promise from her mother that if ever she should suddenly her remains should be kept until her relatives were certain of her death, as the body was buried in a vault. Her body will be kept unburied until death is established beyond a doubt.

Swindling His Fellow Countrymen. YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 31.--Jo Garbins, an Italian fruit vendor, who made himself rich by exacting money from new-comers to Italy, has been arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses. He sold a fruit stand to J. Dominic for $200, promising to pay a share of $250 for rent. This he failed to do.

Better Times.

PITTSBURGH, July 31.--Shoenberger's iron and steel works starts up very department except the nail factory, next Monday, giving employment to two thousand men. It is believed this marks the worst of the troubles in the iron trade, and a number of large orders have been received.

St. Louis Smothered.

ST. LOUIS, July 31.--The Mexican edicts have arrived here, and will next leave for Denver. Upon account of some strictures made by the local committee here upon Mr. Taylor, the manager of the excursion, they declined any hospitality at the hands of the committee.

Suicide of a Democratic Politician. READING, Pa., July 31.--At Norrisown, Pa., Henry Rosenburg, a prominent democratic politician of Hickorytown, this county, committed suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear. He was a wealthy man.

The Kid's Doin.

MILES CITY, July 31.--Badger Bill, alias "the dog," has been shot and killed by one hundred miles southwest of the Rosebud. They caught him stealing horses.

Boyman's Victim.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 31.--Edward Welch, a boyman, has been arrested.

THE SILENT COTTAGE.

NOT EVEN A WORD TO REST ON THE DEAD HERO'S COFFIN.

Mrs. Grant Much Affected That All He Had Was Taken from Him--Dr. Newman's Address--The Biography. Memoirs--Temporary Tomb.

MR. MCGREGOR, N. Y., July 31.--The reason that Gen. Grant was not buried in his uniform was because he had none. His uniform of lieutenant general was sent to Washington with the other relics of his career last spring, and was transferred to the government. All his swords went at the same time, and when Mrs. Grant saw a picture in an illustrated paper the other day representing the coffin with a sword resting upon it, she was much affected.

The general felt the parting with the sword he had used for so long a time more than loss of all his other trophies, and it touched Mrs. Grant deeply that, now he was laid to rest, there was not one of the swords he cherished so much to rest upon his coffin.

It was reported that Mrs. Grant would see the remains after they were laid out, but she did not do so. Miss Thurdycroft, who was with her, said she would see them during the day.

Mr. Henry Camp, who has charge of the singing in the Hanson place M. E. church, Brooklyn, is here, and Dr. Newman has asked him to take charge of the singing at the funeral. He will do so. Miss Thurdycroft and others have offered their services to sing at the funeral here on Tuesday, but the offer has been declined with thanks. It is the design that the ceremonies shall be of the simplest possible character.

Dr. Newman has finished his funeral address. It will not be long in length. One reason why Mrs. Grant does not give to the public the letter the general left for her, is that it mentions the names of a number of men now living, telling how the general had been deceived by those he supposed to be his friends, and explaining how he was drawn into the meshes of Ward. The letter would make eight pages, closely written, of large sized writing paper.

Canadian Condolence. MONTREAL, July 31.--At a special meeting of the city council, it was unanimously resolved:

"That this council consider it their duty, in their first meeting after the receipt of the mournful intelligence of the death of Gen. and ex-President U. S. Grant, to give expression to and record their most profound sorrow at the bereavement and irreparable loss of so distinguished a personage who, as commander-in-chief of the United States, has commanded the admiration and respect as a soldier and eminent statesman of the people of Canada, and also to convey to the people of the United States their heartfelt sympathy in their mournful loss. That his worship the mayor be instructed to convey to the widow and family of the illustrious deceased their sincere condolence in their lamented bereavement."

Mayor Beaugrand will represent this city at the funeral.

The Tomb--Lighting.

NEW YORK, July 31.--A large force of men are at work upon the excavation of the temporary vault in Riverside park. It is the purpose to build a vault which will last for several years. One of the officers of the park department has been ordered to say that he knew the time for the completion of the permanent tomb and the transfer to it of Gen. Grant's remains. They were events which will not take place after four or five years.

During the afternoon a violent storm, accompanied by lightning, drove the workmen to shelter. They had barely reached cover when a stroke of lightning descended within a few feet from the excavation. There was a terrible crash on the edge of the bluff, and a huge oak tree growing close upon the brink went tumbling down, tearing the leaves and limbs from several of its fellows in its fall.

Mr. Cleveland's Selection.

WASHINGTON, July 31.--President Cleveland has been communicating with Mrs. Grant respecting the selection of pallbearers for Gen. Grant's remains. Upon receipt of the request, she has immediately telegraphed Mrs. Grant for any suggestion she might desire to offer, and Mr. Grant replied that if any prominent Union general, standing Sherman and Sheridan--should be selected she desired that some prominent general who was a member of the Confederate army should also be invited to act as one of the pall bearers. The president has not yet prepared a list of names.

Cowardly Blow of a Jealous Lover.

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.--Michael McGirt and Jacob Eisenhower have been courting Annie Crumme, of No. 161 Jefferson street, for some time. The lovers were seen together to meet, and accordingly set different nights on which to do their love making. McGirt, a young man, of a robust, yellow, blue jeans, and followed his rival into an alley, where he plunged a knife into his ally. The girl witnessed the occurrence and informed the police, whereupon McGirt beat her until she was insensible. He also meted out the same punishment to the officer, and not only blue-cut, but roughly handled was the man overpowered. He was held in $1,000 bail for trial.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 31.--Professor Brooks and Frederick Mott, prominent residents of New Haven, started on a balloon ascension. The balloon was struck by lightning and was precipitated to the ground. The occupants were badly hurt, but it is not thought fatally.

KEEPING IT UP.

Simoon Harris in the Libel Suit Business in Toledo.

TOLEDO, July 31.--Simoon Harris arrived here from Chicago, in company with a lady, registered at the Boddy house as "Simoon Harris, T. C. and St. L. Chicago, and Winnie Ambery Cincinnati."

The twain remained there for dinner. They were unable to pay their bill and were refused further accommodations and part of their baggage held as security. They went to the Island House, where Winnie remained all night and left for Cincinnati, a friend paying her bill and transportation.

Harris remained in the city. He has drawn up a petition for $250,000 damages against the Telegram for an article published, mentioning him as insane; says that a statement is libelous and he means business. He means the following telegram to Tom Campbell: "Three Toledo dogs prevent engagement. Make it Saturday afternoon. Warrants issued for the arrest of James Connel, of the Commercial-Telegram, and Graft & Kemp, of the Boddy house, for criminal libel, for $250,000, in the United States court here. Enquirer must cease libeling me." He says he is here on legal business.

Cheapest Excursion of the Season.

CINCINNATI, July 31.--The citizens of Cincinnati will be treated to two weeks of gradually melting down into their shoes from the unusually severe and oppressive heat. There has been a universal opening of a cool spot, somewhere, anywhere. Col. R. E. Miles, one of America's most popular and well-known newspaper editors, has taken to the rescue by announcing one of his popular excursions to Chicago, the "Windy City." The excursion will leave Cincinnati Saturday, August 1, tickets good to return in five days, with stop-overs at principal points of interest along the great Monon route, over which the excursion will be made. Tickets for the round trip, including a lake trip by steamer, cost but six dollars. Judging from the immense sales there will be several trains in the excursion. The excursion will be quite depopulated by fresh air seekers.

Western Union's Canadian Rival.

MONTREAL, July 31.--The monopoly of the telegraph service of Canada by the Western Union is being seriously threatened by the Great Northwestern is about at an end, as in about a month the Canadian Pacific railway will begin to operate its own telegraph and telegraph service between here and Winnipeg. The Canadian Pacific is now in the public. In telegraph circles here it is said that great efforts were made by Jay Gould to get control of the Canadian Pacific lines, but they were unsuccessful. Negotiations are on foot for leasing a cable to connect the Canadian Pacific with Australia, Japan, China and Japan. The United States connections will probably be over the Vanderbilt railway system, with which the Pacific is on a special terms.

From Alaska.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 31.--Professor Zahn, of Notre Dame college, South Bend, Ind., arrived here from a trip to Alaska. The professor, who has been in all parts of the world says the trip from Puget Sound to Alaska, surpasses anything in the world for adventure. He thinks it will become a great summer resort, with steamers making regular weekly trips. The last steamer brought down $100,000 in gold bullion, the result of a week's run of the Alaska Mining Island. The future of the country for mining is reported to be equal to that of Nevada. Senator Stanford, who was with Alaska, Dolph, of Oregon, returned on the same steamer.

The State Librarian.

CINCINNATI, July 31.--Rev. Dr. Pierson is at the Grand hotel. He is from state here, appointed by Gov. Hendley last winter. There was much criticism of this appointment, which was made under the influence of Cleveland. During the summer of 1884, one of Cleveland's defenders against the charges of immorality. As a preacher and counsellor of the state, Pierson's defense had some weight. He is from Toledo, O., and up to last fall had always voted the republican ticket. He has quite a reputation as an author, and is much devoted to literary work.

A Fatal Bath.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, July 31.--The eldest daughter of L. K. Mills, grand secretary of the Iowa Legion of Honor, Miss Nole, both about fifteen years of age, were drowned at the Palisades, a summer resort. Mr. Mills was taken from the water unconscious. The three named and another daughter of Mr. Mills were bathing in the river and got into deep water. The Palisades are several miles from a railroad. Mills was several miles from a messenger telephoned from a near station, but was unconscious, and it was thought would die unless assistance was soon secured.

Mail Clog Robbed.

GALESTOWN, Tex., July 31.--The stage between the Galveston States mail between Rio Grande City and Pecos on the Texas and Mexican railroad was held up by two robbers, who examined the mail matter and departed with nothing but the money contained in the registered mail. There were no passengers in the stage. The quarterly remittance to the postoffice at Rio Grande City, amounting to several hundred dollars, was in the stolen pouch. The robbers are undoubtedly in Mexico.

Wife Beater Lynched.

NEW ORLEANS, July 31.--A special to the Times Democrat from Baton Rouge, La., says: "At 2 o'clock yesterday or sixty miles north battered down the jail door and took Thomas Brantly, a young man charged with murdering his wife, out to a distant field and swung him off a limb with his feet a few inches from the ground. The crowd attending the execution was very large. Brantly was the first white man lynched in Georgia for many years."

A Dog that Goes Fike Fighting.

DELAWARE WATER GAP, Pa., July 31.--There was a dog here, which has been on its own account, often returning with a fine pike in its mouth which he has captured.

Deaths Caused by Lightning.

PHILADELPHIA, July 31.--The health board announces that thirty-two deaths were caused here by lightning.

WIDE SWATH OF DEATH.

RAMPANT TRACK OF A RAGING STORM AND ITS CASUALTIES.

Big Fight in a Camp Meeting at Monona Lake—Clara Louise Kellogg Badly Scared—A Terrible Devastation. Three Killed—All Wires Down.

MADISON, Wis., July 31.—Monona Lake assembly now at its height. This city has in two days and one night encountered two severe storms of wind and rain. Tuesday night everybody got a complete drenching and some of the tents were blown over as a meeting was going on at the huge tabernacle. A storm of wind came up quickly, and snapped the halyards and away went a score of tents. A number of boats being on the lake near the grounds, an alarm sprang up lest some of the passengers should meet with an accident. The tabernacle was soon abandoned and everybody watched the lake.

Finally the boats, with the exception of one or two, came in safely, but parties in them were greatly frightened. One sail boat capsized, but nothing seriously followed. A steamer landed during the storm and the number of half fainting women and screaming children were promptly cared for.

Clara Louise Kellogg Scared.
ST. PAUL, Minn., July 31.—When the cyclone struck Moorhead, Minn., a chimney on a tower of the Grand Pacific hotel was blown down, going through a lower roof, then through the attic floor, and falling down into a bed room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. Over a ton of brick and mortar fell but the couple had no bones broken though they are badly cut and bruised.

The plastering was also knocked off the room below which was occupied by Clara Louise Kellogg.
She fainted, then screamed and darted into the hall in her night dress. The fire alarm was turned in and the hose put on before it was discovered what was the matter. It took an hour to quiet the singer, remove the brick from Mr. and Mrs. Thompson's room and attend to their needs.

Terrible Devastation.
DUBUQUE, Iowa, July 31.—A tornado, accompanied by a heavy rain, has visited this city. Several buildings about the city in the process of erection were badly damaged. The top story of Albee's coal storage warehouse was blown down, and a new brick store belonging to W. G. Waters. Trees were leveled in all parts of the city, chimneys were torn from many buildings, awnings were torn to shreds, and a large portion of the decorations in honor of Gen. Grant's death were blown off. In the lumber yards flying timber was seen in every direction, and many piles of lumber belonging to the Standard Lumber company and Knapp, Stout & company were leveled. The storm raged for twenty minutes.

Three Killed.
MORRISON CITY, Iowa, July 31.—During a severe thunder storm, which followed a season of terrible heat, the house of Edward Salisbury was struck by lightning and three persons killed. The bolt came down a chimney in the room in which the family were sitting. Mrs. Salisbury was struck on her head by a piece of brick and killed. Two children were in the path of the fluid and were fatally burned about the face and head.

All Wires Down.
CHICAGO, July 31.—A terrible wind and rain storm, accompanied by lightning, has been raging throughout Minnesota since 3 o'clock. All telegraph wires between Chicago and St. Paul have ceased working, so that the damage and extent of the storm circuit is not known.

Black and White.
CHICAGO, July 31.—Ben Coleman, a young colored man, and Kate Collins, an eighteen-year-old Irish girl, appeared before Justice White with a license and desired to get married. The justice found a pretext for refusing to tie the knot, and confiscated the license. The couple, it is said, went to the residence of a priest and were married. The mother of the girl expressed herself that although she knew nothing of it till now, she supposed she would have to consent. The girl's father is very indignant, and threatens to shoot both the girl and her dusky husband. Coleman stated his folks lived in Cincinnati.

Father Patrick Really Dead.
WILMINGTON, Del., July 31.—The Very Rev. Father Patrick Reilly, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church and vicar general of the diocese of Delaware, died of general debility after several months' illness, aged 78. The deceased had been in the ministry fifty-one years and was a classmate of Cardinal McCloskey at St. Mary's college, Emmetsburg. The funeral will take place next Tuesday.

Massey Nominated.
RICHMOND, Va., July 31.—The Democratic State convention resumed its session at 10 o'clock. The attendance was small. After many nominating speeches in favor of John E. Massey and John S. Hurt, for lieutenant governor, a ballot was taken, resulting in the nomination of John E. Massey. Before the ballot was completed Massey was declared the nominee by acclamation.

Petting for a Life.
TAMPA, Fla., July 31.—A petition to the governor is being circulated in Manatee county for the pardon of Bidwell, one of the Sara Seta society, recently sentenced to be hanged, and it is being largely signed. Six of the jurymen who convicted him have signed it. He is believed by many to be innocent, and an effort will be made to obtain a new trial.

Joe Harris Released.
CHICAGO, July 31.—Joseph Harris, the West Side saloonkeeper, who was arrested by Detroit detectives and held on a writ of habeas corpus by Judge Anthony, as there was no affidavit that Harris had been arrested for the commission of any crime, the arrest having been made on the authority of a telegram.

The organized cigarmakers in the United States number 12,000, and held their National convention in Cleveland last week. They spent $500,000 in next month's traveling cigarmakers and $10,000 for sick benefits last year.
